

Rick Maijer
The EU Institutions

Lecture

Students are introduced into several aspects concerning the European Union. On completion of this course students will have knowledge of: the overall structure of the European Union
the EU institutions

Lecture

Decision Making and Lobbying in the EU:

During this course the students will learn about the decision making process of the EU institutions and at the same time the students will gain basic knowledge on Lobbying in the EU and how to lobby the institutions. On completion of this course: students have basic knowledge about the EU decision-making process and specifically the ordinary legislative procedure