

Resy Snijders
Intercultural Communication

Workshop

By the end of the –thought-provoking and interactive- Inter-Cultural Communications (ICC) workshop, participants will:

- be aware of how national, organizational and individual cultural values influence attitudes and behaviour
- understand more about (dealing with) other cultures
- develop culturally appropriate strategies for coping with cultural differences in business customs, social protocols
- develop tools to be more effective in an intercultural environment

Be able to improve their Cultural Intelligence  In short, to make them more flexible intercultural co-workers