WELCOME

University Colleges Leuven-Limburg (UCLL) organise a new English multidisciplinary program on the Limburg campuses: Diepenbeek/Hasselt, fashion capital and Genk, former mining centre, both located in the green province of Limburg in Belgium. You will study in the heart of Europe, at one hour drive from Brussels, host to European and international institutions. Moreover, Belgium is not only famous for its beer and chocolates but also for its excellent education.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

A multidisciplinary, varied and challenging programme! In a common course of 12 ECTS credits on Community Design Thinking, you will do real life projects for a company or organisation in multidisciplinary mixed teams. This course can be combined with max 18 credits in subject specific courses of the 5 Faculties.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Bachelor or master level students, B1/B2 level of English required.
