

SEMINAR • 2 DECEMBER 2015

Fostering high quality teacher-child interactions

Teacher-child relationships have been found to be important for (young) children's social, emotional, behavioural and cognitive development. The Expertise Cell Art of Education (subdomain young children) (UC Leuven-Limburg) is proud to present the following seminar focusing on the results of leading American, Belgian and Dutch research.

Programme

- 09:00 Coffee
09:40 Welcome
10:00 Workshop
Fostering young children's intelligent and sensitive interaction with the surrounding world - MISC (UCLL)
11:00 Coffee
11:30 Workshop
Come Play with us (Stenden Hogeschool, Groningen)
12:30 Lunch
13:20 Lecture
The Playing-2-gether intervention: fostering teacher-child interactions with children with and without problem behaviour (UCLL, KU Leuven)
14:20 Coffee
14:40 Key-note
Teacher-child interactions and interventions (prof. dr. Robert Pianta, University of Virginia)
16:00 Closing

Date

Wednesday 2 december 2015

Location

UC Leuven-Limburg
Faculty of Teacher Education
Hertogstraat 178
3001 Heverlee

Registration

Full day, including lunch: 70 € (40 € for half a day, reductions for students).
Online registration is possible until 25 november 2015.

The number of participants is limited.
Your registration is valid after your payment is received.

Please complete payment before 28 of November:

UC Leuven vzw
Expertise Cell Art of Teaching
Geldenaaksebaan 335
3001 Heverlee
BE20 7865 4858 1056
Message: NAME - seminar Pianta

Want to know more?

Caroline Vancraeyveldt
+32 16 375 600
caroline.vancraeyveldt@ucll.be
www.ucll.be/leerkrachtkind

UC Leuven
Limburg
MOVING MINDS

QUADRI
ONDERZOEK EN
DIENSTVERLENING

SAMEN-SPEL

KU LEUVEN

The organizing committee

Expertise Cell Art of Teaching (subdomain young children), UC Leuven-Limburg, in collaboration with Research Group School Psychology and Child and Adolescent Development (SCAD), KU Leuven